

Bird Pin trail

I'm part of the Galloway Hoard which was buried in Scotland over 1000 years ago... Now I've come to the Museum and met lots of other birds!

Spot me hiding alongside my new feathered friends.

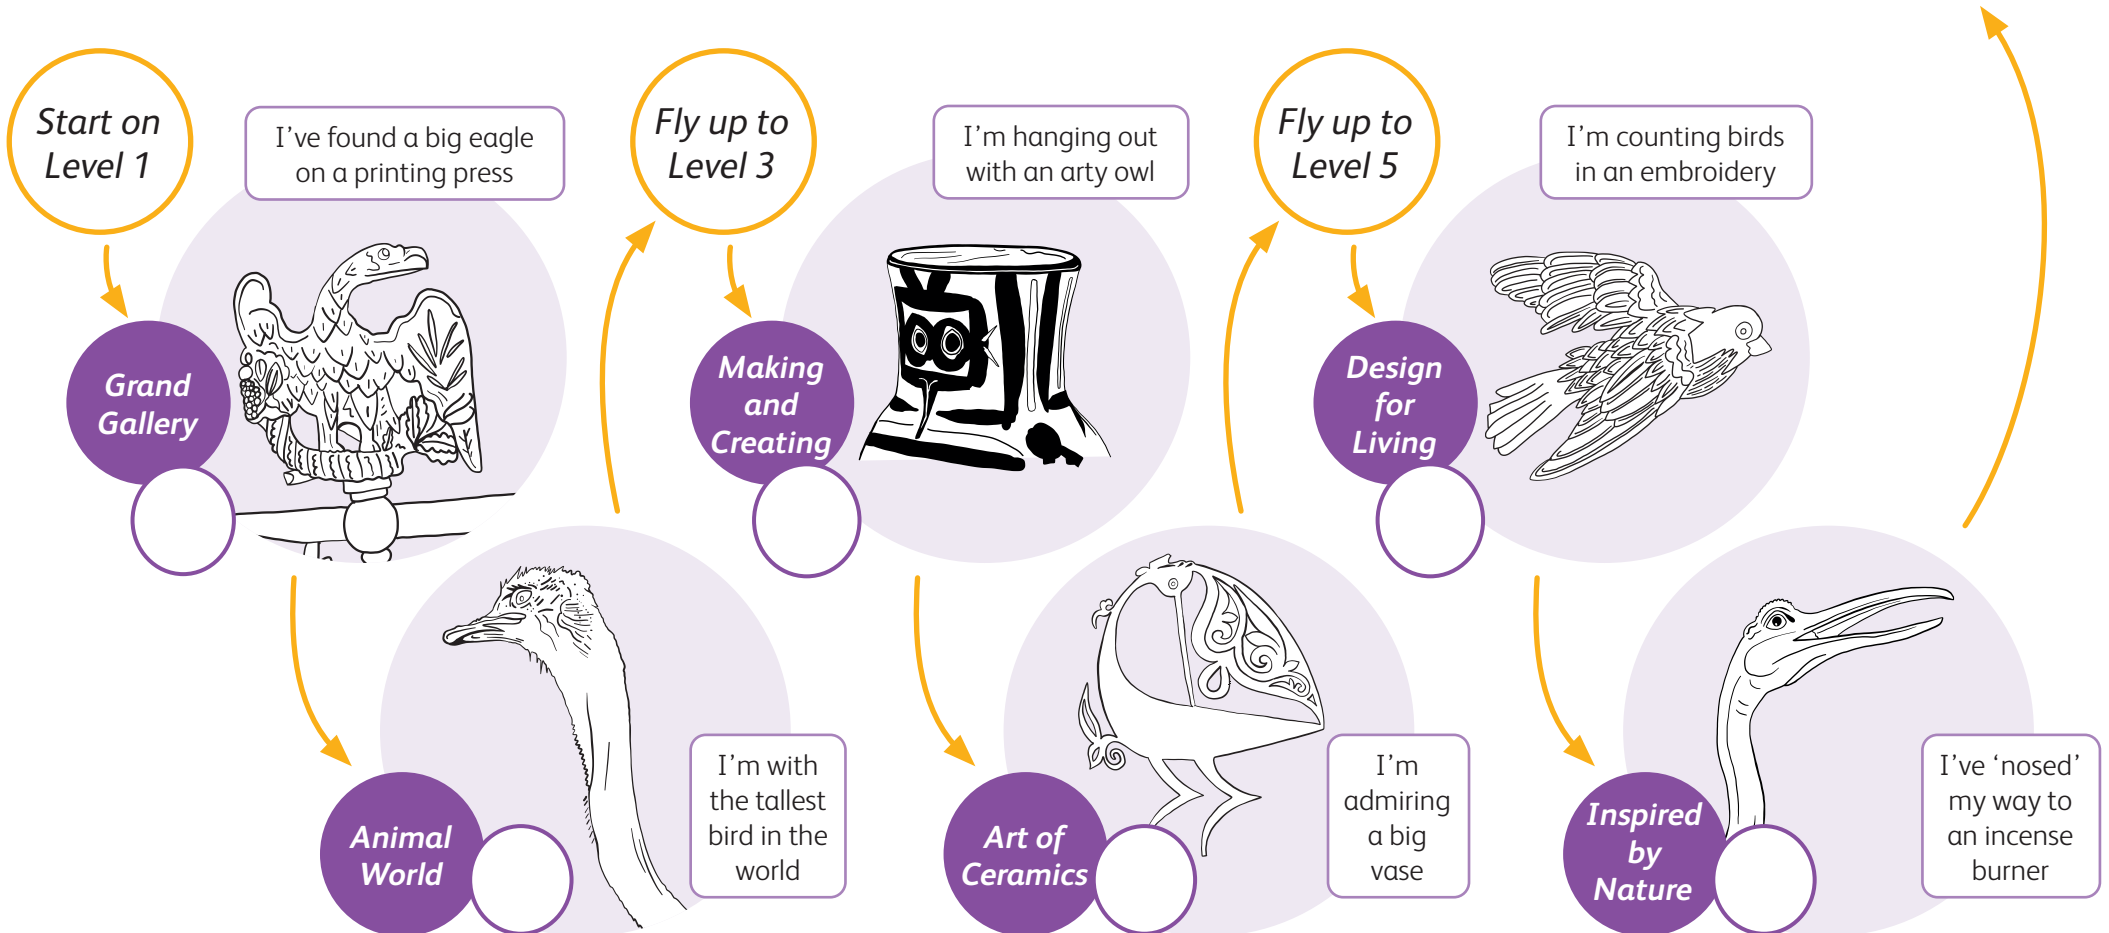

At each stop, I'll reveal a letter. Find all six and the letters will spell out something special about me.

Spell it out!

There is no other bird quite like me!

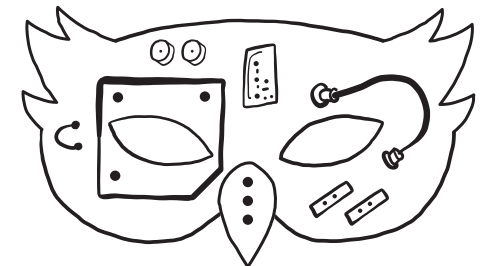

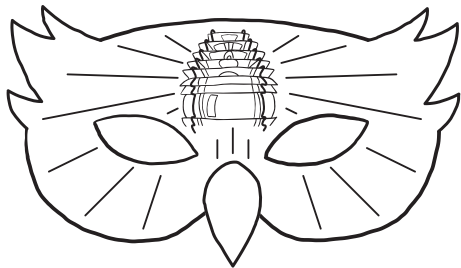

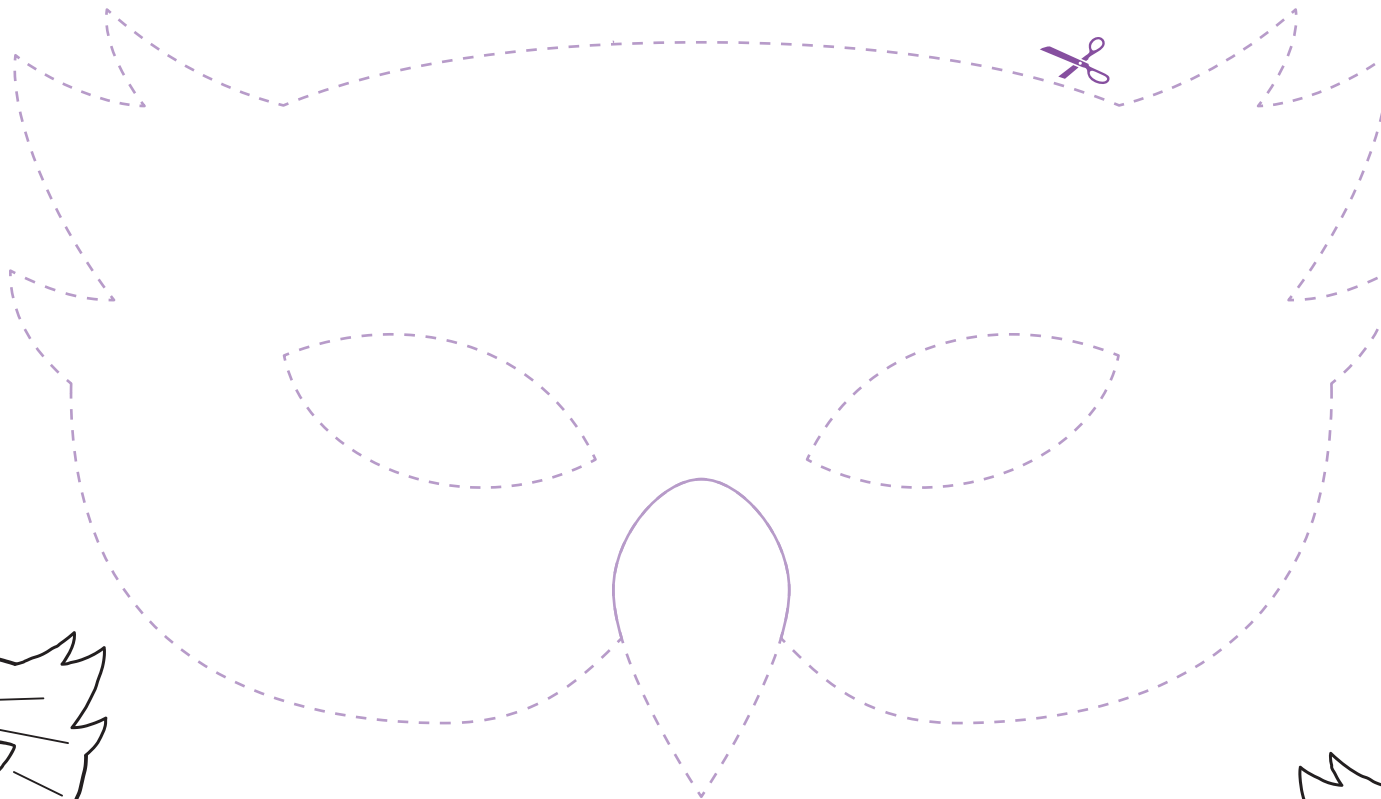

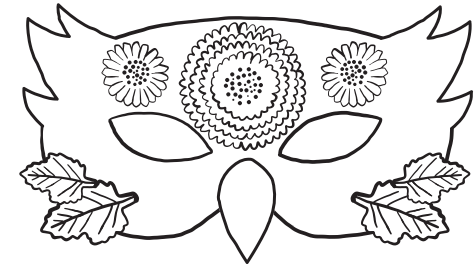

I am _ _ _ _ _

Make a mask

Carry on the fun at home and design your own bird mask below.

Why not be inspired by the beautiful designs of the Galloway Hoard or some of the objects that you saw on your visit to the museum.
